Welcome to a rare opportunity to come to a beautiful place, at a beautiful time, and for a beautiful
- and much needed - message!

The Center for Action and Contemplation is excited to announce the teaming of Thomas Keating, OCSO, and Richard Rohr OFM as they explore in this important and timely conference how centering prayer leads from healing to non-violence.

These two well-known teachers and spiritual guides will explore by lecture, discussion, and practice, the deep integration of our inner and outer journeys. Both our inner violence and social violence will be brought forth for healing and transformation in a sacred and ecumenical context.

Healing Our Violence - Through the Journey of Centering Prayer will have a special appeal both to those beginning and those who are more seasoned on the centering prayer journey. Don't miss out on this unique experience and invitation to integrate the gifts of contemplation and healing in your daily life.

that I am God"*
