

RICHARD ROHR, OFM, is founder and animator of the Center for Action and Contemplation. Dividing his time between work in Albuquerque and retreats and programs around the world, Richard particularly focuses on the integration of contemplation and justice and peace work. His eleven books include Discovering the Enneagram (1990), Simplicity (1991), The Wild Man's Journey (1992) and Quest for the Grail (1994).

The Center for Action and Contemplation

A Christian center for the formation of people for

VISION: We envision CAC as a place of consciousness, offering hope in a despairing world.

PHILOSOPHY: We believe in:

A God who is Radical

A humanity that is wounded

A society that is beyond gender, economics/class differences.

A personhood with both prayer and involvement

Living and promoting

A simple, non-violent

Our experience of truth

A never-ending need in these beliefs.

MISSION: We commit to:

Networking to promote justice and peace.

Educating towards action contemplatively.

Actively engaging in

Collaborating with others and philosophy.

Return to Table of Contents

Return to Section B